DIED SUDDENLY
OF HEART DISEASE.

How frequently does a head line similar to the above greet us in the newspapers. The rush, push and strenuousness of the American people has a strong tendency to lead up to valvular and other affections of the heart, attended by irregular action, palpitation, dizziness, smothered sensations and other distressing symptoms.

Three of the prominent ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made are recommended by some of the leading writers on Materia Medica for the cure of just such cases. Golden Seal root, for instance, is said by the UNITED STATES DISPENSATORY, a standard authority, "to impart tone and increased power to the heart's action." Numerous other leading authorities recommend Golden Seal as an unsurpassed tonic for the muscular system in general, and as the heart is almost wholly composed of muscular tissue, it naturally follows that it must be greatly strengthened by this superb, general tonic. But probably the most important ingredient of "Golden Medical Discovery," so far as its marvelous cures of valvular and other affections of the heart are concerned, is Stone root, or Collinsonia Can., Prof. Wm. Paine, author of Paine's Epitome of Medicine, says of it:

"I, not long since, had a patient who was so much oppressed with valvular disease of the heart that his friends were obliged to carry him up stairs. He, however, gradually recovered under the influence of Collinsonia, (medicinal principle extracted from Stone root), and is now attending to his business.
Heretofore physicians knew of no remedy for the removal of so distressing and so dangerous a malady. With them it was all guess-work, and it fearfully warned the afflicted that death was near at hand. Collinsonia unquestionably affords relief in such cases, and in most instances effects a cure."

Stone root is also recommended by Drs.
Hale and Ellingwood, of Chicago, for valvular and other diseases of the heart.
The latter says: "It is a heart tonic of direct and permanent influence."

"Golden Medical Discovery," not only cures serious heart affections, but is a most efficient general tonic and invigorator, strengthening the stomach, invigorating the liver, regulating the bowels and curing catarrhal affections in all parts of the system.

DEATHS.

—John Poyntz Nelson, one of the most brilliant of the younger journalists of Kentucky, died at 11 o'clock at his former home, Beavers Dam, Va.

—John A. McCall, until recently president of the New York Life Insurance Company, died at 5:33 o'clock this afternoon at the Laurel House, in Lakewood, N. J., where he was taken three weeks ago in the hope that the change might benefit his health, which suffered a breakdown two months ago, during the insurance investigation.

—The remains of Mrs. Chornie Kern Anderson, wife of Dr. Bruce Anderson, were laid to rest in the Paris Cemetery Saturday afternoon. The procession left the residence of Mrs. Lizzie Walker, on High street, at 2 o'clock. The services were held at the grave, conducted by Elder Carey L. Morgan. A large concourse of sympathizing friends and relatives of this most estimable and lovely young woman were in attendance, attesting the high regard and esteem in which the deceased was held in this community. The floral offerings were beautiful.

—Mr. G. W. Myers, aged 73 years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs.
Mary Whaley, in Millersburg, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, after an illness of months with stomach trouble.

Mr. Myers was born in Bath county, where he engaged in farming and stock trading until he moved to this city seventeen years ago. Since living here he has been engaged in the grocery business and other pursuits, until his health failed several years ago, which forced him to retire to private life. He was successful in business, and was a man of the highest integrity. He was a kind and devoted husband and an affectionate father. A few months ago he and his wife moved from their home on Mt. Airy to live with their daughter, Mrs. Whaley, in Millersburg.
He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Nannie Myers, and four daughters, Mrs. A.
T. Forsyth, of this city; Mrs. Mary Whaley, of Millersburg; Mrs. Lucy Black and Mrs. Ida M. Desha, of Greencastle, Ind.

Funeral services will be held this (Tuesday) afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Millersburg Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. B. C. Horton. Burial in Millersburg Cemetery.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. J. W.
THOMAS.

The evidence of an all-wise purpose running through nature is a token of immortality. The constellations, the birds and flowers, atoms and molecules each have their place in the plan that extends through nature, and it is unreasonable that all inanimate nature should fulfill a mission and destiny, while man should perish or that the body should last longer than the soul last longer than the soul.

The mysteries of life give hope of its continuance beyond the grave. Could we understand every other problem but that of death we might conclude that man's eternal home is the tomb, but when we cannot understand the budding flowers, it becomes no greater mystery that we should live again than that we are living now, and not so great a mystery that we should continue to live as that we began to live.

When the cold North wind comes there is something within the heart of the little bird that bids it fly Southward. This voice within its breast is not a deception, for it finds a land of sunshine and flower. From the harmony of the universe we believe that we will find a home of light and love when we follow the impulses that are ever throbbing within our hearts, and we believe that the Providence which cares for the sparrow will not be deaf to humanity's cry.

There is no death! "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" The granite rocks disorgan-ize to make soil for plants and future life. The leaves fall, the flowers fade and pass away. "They only wait through the wintry hours the coming of the May." An angel form walks over the earth. He bears our best loved ones away, and then we call them "dead."

In the death of Mrs. John W. Thomas, our grandmother, He has taken the best and noblest. He has left our hearts all desolate, yet we know that she has only gone before, that she only awaits us there. Her life, one long sacrifice for others, has speeded its influence among others for good. The smile was always ready. She was cheerful, kind and the truest of Christian characters.
For her loss we need not mourn for she bath left us her virtues as jewels to keep, so let the pure and beautiful sleep. May our heavenly Father lead us in her footsteps. May He heal the broken hearts of those who watched so tenderly and fearfully by her bedside and keep safe in His arms the aged grandfather who loved and trusted her so well, for it will not be long till he will see her face to face. May he keep those dear ones in the far-off Southern land who grieve for her but could not come. We see but darkly through the glass as now, but some day we shall know as we are known—
"Never more to walk alone In the dawning of the morning, When the mists have rolled away." G. G.

Insure with W. O. Hinton. He
